Surveillance and Enforcement

Stockholm

The Stockholm Stock Exchange has issued criticism in the following three cases for infractions of the rules of the Exchange. These infractions were not of such a serious nature that they required to be handled by the Disciplinary Committee. Two companies were criticized after giving some forward-looking information during interviews. One company was criticized for not having disclosed a notice concerning acquisitions and transfers of shares according to the rules of the Swedish Industry and Commerce Stock Exchange Committee.

VLT AB and Klippan AB were placed on the Observation segment of Stockholm Stock Exchange's O-list. VLT AB due to the fact that the company did not fulfill the listing requirement regarding distribution of shares and Klippan AB because the company notified that it had severe financial problems.

During the month, two cases of suspected insider trading and three cases concerning suspected price manipulations have been reported to the Financial Supervisory Authority. A sixth report was made regarding another supervisory matter.

The Stockholm Stock Exchange has issued criticism towards one member company and one institutional investor for breaches of the Swedish Industry and Commerce Stock Exchange Committee's rules. In both cases the breaches were of the rules concerning the disclosure of acquisitions and transfers of shares. Furthermore, the Stockholm Stock Exchange has issued criticism towards one member company for placing orders in breach of Norex Member Rules and two other member companies for inappropriate handling of price sensitive information.

Helsinki

During the month, one case of suspected insider trading and two cases of suspected other market abuse have been reported to the Financial Supervisory Authority.

In addition, The Disciplinary Committee of The Helsinki Stock Exchange issued Nokia Corporation with a warning for breaching the disclosure requirements applicable to listed companies. The Disciplinary Committee considered that the Company had neglected to disclose without an undue delay the change concerning its previously published earnings per share forecast of which the Company was aware.
